2) For enumerator: ask respondent if the business paid any expenditures in the categories listed in Table 1 below since the last interview.

For certain items such as water and electricity, it is possible that the respondent cannot distinguish between expenditures incurred by the business and that incurred by the household's personal use or other businesses. In that case, fill the total expenditure in column E or H, ask a respondent what percent of total expenditures were incurred by the business, and record the answer in column D.

If respondents refuse or "don't know" the level of expenditure, probe for the range and record the answers in F and I.
